

HUMAN SEXUALITY

Theory & Research

NURS 280

MAY 12, 2026

TALKING ABOUT SEXUALITY

Factors that contribute to discomfort and anxiety:

Ignorance

Secrecy

Trauma

Source: William Stayton, M Div., Th.D., Ph.D.

SEXOLOGY

“Sexology is the study of what people do when they have sex, and how they feel about it.”

Ted McIlvenna (IASHS)

- Throughout history, many cultures have celebrated or normalized the exploration of sexuality
- In North America, sexuality was first studied (using the scientific method) by Alfred Kinsey in the 1940s
- William H. Masters & Virginia E. Johnson’s work began in the 1950s

CURRENT RESEARCH IN HUMAN SEXUALITY

THE CANADIAN JOURNAL OF HUMAN SEXUALITY

sieccan

UBCsexual health RESEARCH

forum canadien
de recherche sur la sexualité

csrf

canadian sex research forum

Stigma and Resilience
Among Vulnerable
Youth Centre

CONSIDER:

- Who told you about sex?
- What was missing from your education about sexuality?
- How do these experiences affect how you communicate about sex today?

SEXUALITY CONTINUES

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

